

Eric Lamaze has been a well known name in the equestrian world for a long time now but his best known partner became a legend.

Hickstead, a stallion small in structure but big in heart teamed with Eric to bring home countless victories. Among them were a gold medal at the 2008 Olympics, 2-time winner of Spruce Meadows prestigious CN International, and bronze at the 2010 World Equestrian Games where Hickstead also won 'Best Horse' after jumping clear rounds for all the riders in the famous 'final four'. Of course these are just a few of the many wins that won the hearts of many fans around the world!

Kim Penner is an internationally acclaimed, award-winning artist. She is best known for bringing the horse and it's natural scenery together in a breathtaking arrangement. She has won numerous awards at many venues, one of which is the Calgary Stampede Western Art Showcase. Best New Artist and Best of Show in both the art auction as well as the sales salon. Kim was honored to be commissioned to paint the talented horse & rider duo into the timeless piece of "Moment in Time"

Proceeds from the Hickstead's "Moment in Time" giclee sales will go to benefit the following organizations...

Rocky Mountain Show Jumping's program First Leg Up is being established as an opportunity for inner city kids to get the chance to ride as well as giving up and coming equestrians in the sport opportunities that would not otherwise be available to them.

Just World International acts as a catalyst for positive change in the developing world by working with local partner organizations to provide basic education, health, nutrition, hygiene, and vocational program for impoverished children in select areas of South America.

Rocky Mountain Show Jumping is pleased to present Hickstead's...
